TEBBUTT-TIMES POLL

Choices for PM

Bainimarama leads, Qereqeretabua attracts attention

By NASIK SWAMI

CHARISMATIC local celebrity Lenora Qereqeretabua has "soared" in the preferred prime minister stakes, just 22 days after she was unveiled as a provisional candidate for the National Federation Party (NFP).

A Tebbutt-Times poll has inked the political novice's name on to the list of preferred prime minister after she captured 3 per cent of the votes of the 1000 people surveyed.

According to those surveyed, Ms

Qereqeretabua should be a contender for the top job, alongside political heavyweights Voreqe Bainimarama, Sitiveni Rabuka and Ro Teimumu Kepa.

The former radio talk show host and TV presenter also edged her own party leader in the preferred PM votes.

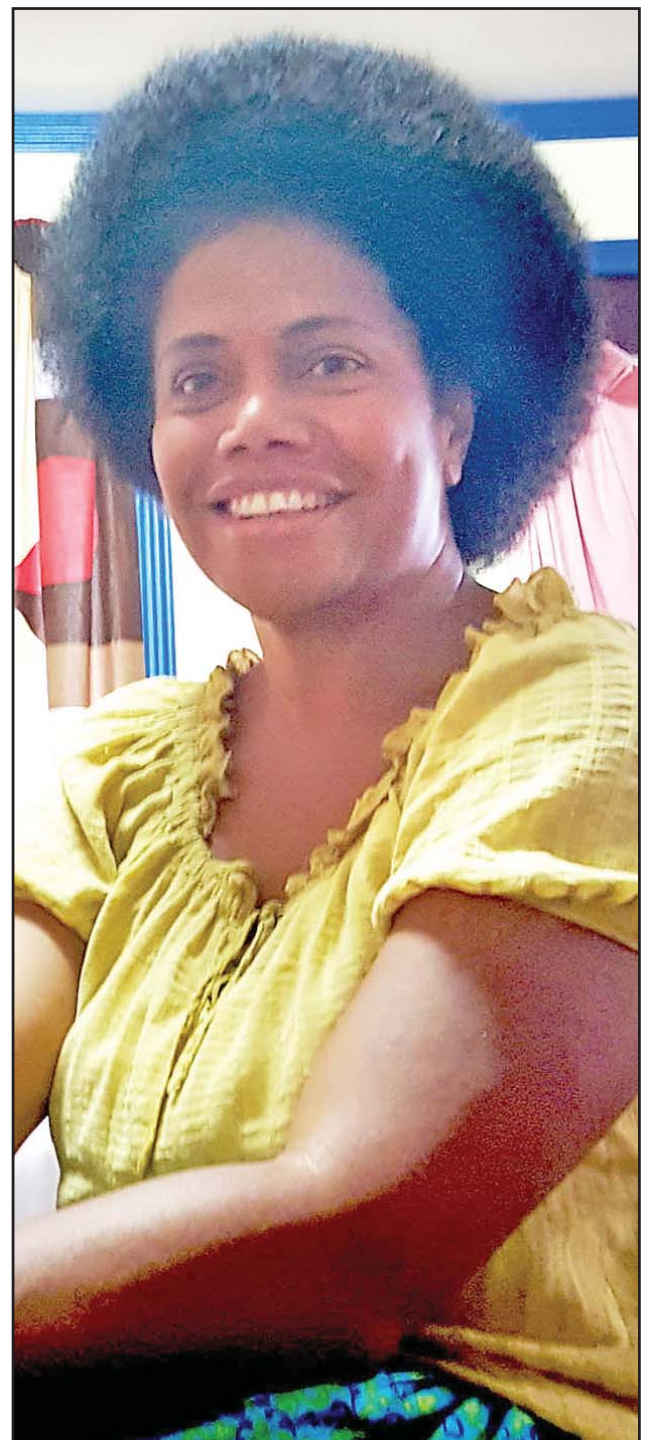

Professor Biman Prasad is also on the list at 2 per cent.

Since her entry into the political realm, the now public relations consultant participated in her first campaign trip to the North with the party leader this week and released three campaign videos which were uploaded on social media sites, attracting thousands of likes, shares and comments.

According to the poll where people were free to answer with any name of their choice of preferred PM, FijiFirst party leader and Prime Minister Voreqe Bainimarama was the popular choice with 64 per cent.
